Steve Franke Golf Benefit

The Rotary Club of Dunwoody Board of Directors recently voted to be a $1,000 sponsor of the Steve Franke Golf Benefit, which was held on November 7 at the Lanier Golf Club. Franke was injured in a freak accident at a family gathering at the beach in June and has been at the Shepherd Spinal Center since then. Just this week he was moved to his mother's home in Dunwoody Club Forest because she has a ramp into the home. His Dunwoody home is currently being revamped for his wheel chair and other medical equipment. He spends all day at the Shepherd Center in rehab.

He was the general manager of the Ravinia Club until it closed and RCD had to find another meeting place. When the accident occurred, he was the general manager of Brookfield West Country Club.

Our club sponsored the event to honor the service rendered to our club by Steve Franke over many years. Club members Lang Woodydy, Tom Lashway, Doug Wright, and Rick Woods played in the tournament. No information on their ranking has emerged!
